STATUTORY DECLARATION – UNKNOWN OR UNSTATED PARENTAGE

Privacy statement
Personal information is collected, used and disclosed by Indigenous Services Canada in accordance with the Privacy Act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/P-21/index.html). Only information needed to administer the Indian Registration and the Secure Certificate of Indian Status programs is collected. The authority to collect and use personal information is derived from the Indian Act (https://laws-lois.justice.gc.ca/eng/acts/i-5/). The information collected is used to determine entitlement to registration on the Indian Register and membership in a First Nation whose Band List is maintained by the Department, to issue a Secure Certificate of Indian Status to registered persons and for the provision of benefits and services to those who are registered. The description of this personal information collection (AANDC PPU 110, AANDC PPU 220) is available at Info Source (https://www.aandc-aadnc.gc.ca/eng/1353081939455/1353082011520). You have the right to access and request corrections to your personal information by contacting the department's Privacy Coordinator at 819-997-8277. For more information on privacy issues, complaints and the Privacy Act in general, you may consult the Privacy Commissioner at 1-800-282-1376

Instructions

- ► The Declaration can be used to provide information that could help establish a person's entitlement to registration (Indian status) in situations where a parent, grandparent or other ancestor is unknown or unstated.
- ► The Declaration can be completed by the person applying for Indian status or requesting changes to parental information on the Indian Register; or by any other person, including family members, First Nation/Band officials and Elders. The person making the declaration may be contacted to clarify information.

Note: The Declaration does not replace the proof of birth document. An original proof of birth document must be submitted with an application for registration.

- ► Any document to help establish parentage can be submitted with the form, for example, an amended proof of birth document listing the parents' names; statutory declarations; court documents; census, church, school and hospital records; and band council resolutions.
- ► The Declaration must be signed before a person who is authorized by law to administer oaths, affirmations and declarations, for example, a commissioner for oaths, a commissioner for taking affidavits, a lawyer, a notary or a justice of the peace.
- ► To obtain forms or additional information, visit www.canada.ca/indian-status or call 1-800-567-9604.
- ► Complete the form on-screen or write in block letters using black or dark blue ink.
